

SO EASY

Wouldn't it be so easy, wouldn't it be so breezy
Wouldn't it be so easy, if all I had to do was loving you

And the nighttime will pass
Like the wind blowing down a lonesome mountainside
And the daytime will pass
Like the breeze blowing over the grass
Like the wind blowing down a lonesome mountainside

Wouldn't it be so easy, wouldn't it be so breezy
Wouldn't it be so easy, if all I had to do was loving you

And the nighttime will pass
Like the wind blowing down a lonesome mountainside
And the daytime will pass
Like the breeze blowing over the grass
Like the wind blowing down a lonesome mountain
